Sportsmen Will Offer Six Point Area Program

A six-point fish and game program will be recommended for adoption in this area at a meeting of sportsmen's groups to be held at the Bret Harte Inn in Grass Valley April 29, with President Johnny Ciardella and Vice President Charles Osburn of the Truckee Outdoor Sportsmen representing this and the Tahoe areas. State Senator Harold Johnson will preside at the session.

The local program proposals were made at a meeting of the Outdoor Sportsmen at Capitol Hall Tuesday night, with representatives from the Lake Tahoe Community Club, Brockway Rotary, Tahoe Chamber of Commerce, Truckee Chamber of Commerce, Truckee 20-30 Club, Tahoe and Truckee Lions Clubs, Soda Springs and Donner Lake interests attending.

The six points to be proposed for this area are:

1. Planting catchable size trout in the Truckee River.
2. Establishment of a permanent biologist in this area.
3. Protection of winter range for deer.
4. More beaver plants in the smaller streams.
5. Open Lake Tahoe to year around fishing.
5. Increase angling license fees in the state to $5.

Announcement was made of the meeting of the state senate interim committee on fish and game to be held at the new high school here on the evening of May 21. A dinner will be served prior to the meeting, the latter being open to the public.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvah Hooper will arrive here Sunday and on May 1 expect to take over the Self-Service Laundromat at Gateway Park Shopping Center, having purchased the equipment from Mrs. Oscar Beach.

Mrs. Beach is leaving here to join her husband, now employed with the division of highways at Chico.

Hooper is Nevada County coroner and is associated with N. F. Dolley in the Truckee Colonial Mortuary. He plans to continue these affiliations along with the operation of the laundromat. For the time being, the Hoopers will make their home at the Dolley apartments.

The newcomers propose no change in the service or policies in their new business, Hooper said, but will lengthen the hours and be closed only on Sundays.

The laundromat contains 15 washers, two driers, wringers and other apparatus necessary and convenient for operation of the plant.

Parking Project To Feature Meet Of Local Chamber

Among other items to be discussed by the Truckee Chamber of Commerce meeting at Brown's Cafe tonight at a 6:30 dinner will be the parking question for the main street, a subject which has long been an issue here.

At the last meeting a committee headed by Charles Osburn was appointed to secure the opinion of local business people regarding the establishment of a parking lot on the Costa property in the rear of the California Cafe. The property has been offered for an annual rental of $600 with an agreement by the owners to keep it opened and free of snow.

Osburn said yesterday that nearly 100 per cent of the business people had agreed to use the lot the year around, night and day, for parking and further agreed to enforce the ruling among their employees, thus hoping to leave ample parking spaces along the main shopping street for passing tourists or out-of-town shoppers. The ruling, Osburn said, would not apply to emergency vehicles.

It is expected that further discussion on the subject will feature tonight's session with other matters scheduled on the agenda.

ATOM BOMB TESTS LURES THOMAS OFF ROAD TO TRUCKEE

The prospect of viewing at close range an explosion of an atomic bomb apparently proved more desirable to Lowell Thomas than the spring skiing in this area, so the famous newscaster and commentator failed to put in an appearance here this week and instead went to southern Nevada for the A-bomb tests.

Thomas may be here later this week, prior to going on to San Francisco where he is scheduled to lecture next week. In event he does come here the stage is all set for him to broadcast from the Southern Pacific depot.

Sheriff Brown is expected to arrive in the near future to make arrangements for a successor to Fair. The position pays $235 a month and the deputy is employed as a night officer in Truckee.

TAHOE DEPUTIES' TERMS EXTENDED

The Placer County board of supervisors has approved a request by Sheriff Charles Ward to retain paid deputies at Lake Tahoe until June 1. The sheriff said the exceptionally heavy snow pack made it advisable to retain the police patrol for an extra two months.

He pointed out that a number of Tahoe summer homes were damaged by snow and storms and as the snow melted, buildings were left exposed and open to looters.

By June 1, the sheriff feels, most home owners will have been able to reach their property and make necessary repairs.

Opening of the Tahoe Forest Hospital last week brought well-deserved praise from officials, patients and the general public. The beautiful, modern, fully equipped hospital is the pride of the district which made it possible and those who have worked endless hours, without compensation, to create the institution are deserving of more thanks than they will receive. Sponsors of the plan, the directors and others who donated time, money and effort may well enjoy a feeling of having completed a project of great importance and one which will be a lasting asset to the area it will serve. There is an old saying that any job worth doing is worth doing well and we can certainly all agree that the directors of the hospital district have certainly carried out that rule.

With the advent of spring, traffic is on the increase and with this increase comes added perils. Just as soon as highways are free of snow, some motorists get the idea that everything is on their side and that speeding, cutting in and other violations can be accomplished without dangers. They are so wrong. As a matter of fact, snowy and icy roads often prevent accidents as drivers usually use more than ordinary care. This same care practiced on dry pavement will pay off.

TRUCKEE MEDICO SETS HOURS FOR HOSPITAL STAYS

Dr. L. D. Nelson this week announced he will be at the Tahoe Forest Hospital each Monday, Wednesday and Friday morning, returning to his own office in the Southern Pacific Hotel building at 1 p.m. on those days.

He will continue to receive patients at his office Tuesday and Thursday mornings and in emergencies can be reached at either the hospital or his office.

The above hours are in addition to regular calls at the hospital, he said.

Telephone Strike Over, Little Effect Noted Here

Truckee Loses Game; Changes Made In Lineup

Auburn Staggers Locals In Season's Opener 30 to 6

Lack of spring practice and the fact that they had not played together before resulted in dire defeat for the Truckee Mountaineers in the opening game of the Placer - Nevada League Sunday, Auburn winning 30 to 6.

The four Truckee pitchers allowed 19 walks and 16 hits and 11 errors were chalked up. Manager Johnny Rau, however, was not dismayed and immediately set out to revamp his team and when they meet the Penryn JACL in Auburn next Sunday, a different story may come out of the game.

Rau reports signing up Roy Galli and William J. Garrick of Soda Springs as pitchers and Gilbert Kumley of Truckee, an infielder, to supplement his lineup. Garrick is stationed on Donner Summit with the Travis Air Base club and Galli, a former Verdi player and recently employed in nearby timber operations, is well known here where he often performed on the mound.

Work is being started this week to clear the local diamond of snow and Rau hopes that before the season is too far advanced the local crew will be able to indulge in more practice than can now be had.

Mrs. Painter who had been employed by the Charles Warners, apparently stepped off a board, lost her balance and fell. She was rushed to the Tahoe Forest Hospital for treatment by Dr. L. D. Nelson.

First Baby Born In New Hospital To Local Couple

Mary Catherine Frates was the first baby born in the new Tahoe Forest Hospital.

She is the fifth child of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Frates and weighed six and a half pounds at birth. She was born at 2:30 o'clock Monday, April 21. Both she and her mother are reported by Dr. L. D. Nelson as doing well.

The little girl was the recipient of a number of gifts offered by local merchants to the first baby born in the new hospital.

STATE TO SHARE COST OF BRIDGE; ROAD FUND O.K.

Because of the unusually heavy drain on road funds due to the hard winter, the Nevada County board of supervisors Monday passed a resolution by a unanimous vote, authorizing the expenditure of $20,000 from the general fund to meet future and current claims and provide for continuing the sorely needed work.

At the same time, Chairman H. G. Loehr said they have been assured by the state that that agency will share to the extent of $28,000 in the cost of replacing the bridge over the Truckee River on the Brockway cutoff, destroyed by an overweighed truck last fall.

Loehr said that continued efforts and lengthy overall planning alone has made it possible to continue road work throughout the five districts, all of which suffered heavily from the storms during the winter. Considerable opposition was met and overcome and it now appears that work can continue until the next budget period without undue delay.

BALD MOUNTAIN WILL GET BULK OF 85,000 TREES

Tahoe National Forest personnel are going to plant 85,000 trees this spring, announced Supervisor Guerdon Ellis of the Tahoe National Forest. The planting will be done on several ranger districts, with the bulk of the trees being put in on the Bald Mountain burn, under the direction of E. E. "Pike" Boehm, Truckee district ranger.

In addition to Jeffrey pine seedings, 5,000 hybrids have been obtained by cross pollination of particularly hardy, fast growing parent seed trees. It is expected that they will make more rapid growth and will be more hardy than trees which are grown from average seed.

Other districts which will receive planting trees are Sierraville, Camptonville and Foresthill. On those districts, open spots which are capable of producing timber but which are now bare will be planted.

Because of the excellent cooperation of forest users last year, no man-caused fires occurred on the Tahoe forest which necessitated planting, Ellis added.

HIGH SCHOOL P.T.A. WILL NOMINATE

Nominations for next year's officers will be on the agenda for the May 15 High School PTA meeting, Miss Virginia Angelo, secretary, announced this week. All parents, who have children in high school now or will have children in the 7th grade this fall, are cordially invited to join with this group, which meets the third Thursday of each school month. Miss Angelo pointed out also that you need not be a member to attend the meetings.

To all telephone users in the North Tahoe area, information that our telephone girls will man the switchboard beginning May 4 should be of interest. We have and are accustomed to such personalized service in our community that all too often we ask our well known operators to give us our party without bothering to look up numbers. With these new girls it will not be as easy to do this. Let's start looking into our telephone books for our numbers in an effort to cooperate with our hello girls, thus making for better service all the way around.

(Rcd. too late for April 17)

Kindergarten and First Grade:

Ronnie Porath visited us for two days during his Easter vacation.

Again we won the Thrift Banner for putting the most money in the bank.

We had a lovely time at the PTA dinner and enjoyed the picture "Realm of the Wild."

Grades 2 and 3:

The boys and girls in Mrs. Wing's classroom enjoyed the Easter egg hunt April 12. Each child dyed three hard boiled eggs during art period. Half of the young people were the Easter bunnies, the other half were the hunters.

Reading group No. 3 finished their readers, "In New Places," and have started "From Sea to Sea."

Grades 4, 5 and 6:

The following students had perfect attendance during the last school month, being neither absent nor tardy: Douglas Braden, Carol Bailey, Gwen Mizner, Timmy Mizner, JoAnn Van Hooser, Stanley Baker, Nolan Little, Buddy Moore, Kenny Smith, Donald Van Hooser.

Timmy Mizner, Dorothy Mercer, JoAnn Van Hooser and Philip Mandeville are doing a very nice job with their maps of Canada.

Walter Mandeville is going to make a scapbook of each of the provinces. He is busy writing to the capitals of each province now.

Jerry Thompkins just sent a letter the Bureau of Mines in Washington, D.C., asking for information about mineral deposits in the United States.

Danny Cates was appointed to the school safety patrol playground division this week.

(Rcd. in time for April 24)

Kindergarten and First Grade:

Margy Mandeville and Daryl Brooks returned to school after being ill at the beginning of the week.

Kingsley McPherson and Kris Felte are anxious to start our garden. King brought some soil and Kris (thanks to Mrs. Felte) brought the peat-moss. We have seeds but need some flat boxes now.

Grades 2 and 3:

Denis Ludlow brought two tomahawk heads to share with our class. The tomahawk heads were found under the roots of a tree, which was removed from the Ludlow resort. Many arrowheads were found in the same vicinity. The natives in this section of Lake Tahoe believe there used to be Indian burial grounds where these ceremonial weapons were found.

Almost half of our class participated in the school district's ski meet last week at Squaw Valley. Jack's mother, Mrs. Don McPherson, went to the meet to watch her son ski.

Linda Waian brought a large piece of flint to our class. She found it one day while becahcombing along Kings Beach.

Frank Burke, assistant superintendent of the Placer County schools, and Everett O'Rourke, local district superintendent of schools, visited our classroom last Wednesday. The latter took pictures of one our arithmetic charts, which we use to study the value of American coins. If the picture turns out, it will be printed in a language arts bulletin published by tht Placer County superintendent's office.

Billy Labernik returned to school this week after spending a week with relatives in the state of Washington.

Sherry Arney went to Carson City last Thursday afternoon.

Tahoe Letter

Tahoe City, April 21

Dear Tahoeites:

Talk of the town this week is he wonderful showing Lake Tahoe Ski Club members made in current competitions in this area.

Receiving congratulations are Rusty Frodenberg, son of the Art Frodenbergs of Tahoe City, who placed 5th in the grueling cross-country Snowshoe Thompson race on Saturday, the course for which ran around Spooner's Lake twice for a distance of a little over ten miles, and taking second place in B class jumping Sunday at White Hills. Rusty's time for the cross country was 55 minutes and 54 seconds, which together with his jumping points gave him second in the classic combined. He took home two beautiful trophies for his two days work. First in B jumping event was Jimmie Morhain of Truckee, who captured a trophy, with John Robinson of Tahoe taking first in the D jumping, another trophy winner. Jay Stuart came second in D for a trophy and Jerry Quam of Truckee came in 4th in C jumps. Rusty Frodenberg had a little bad luck on Sunday when it came time for the longest jumping event, he went back some 80 feet above the in run and took off in a beautiful jump, but the hill just wasn't long enough and Rusty landed in rough snow and suffered some painful injuries; not only bruised all over, but two twisted ankles and damaged arms, neck and back. He's still able to walk but it's a bit painful.

The snow was reported in good shape and Rusty announced the finest of treatment from the host club with private rooms and baths for visiting entrants at Minden Inn and excellent meals from Friday noon to Sunday noon. Several dozen boys were guests over the weekend.

One-time Lake Tahoe Ski Club member, Max Straubhaar, now a Modesto resident, took the longest standing leap of the day, 146 feet.

The only two members of the Lake Tahoe Ski Club entered in Squaw Valley's combined giant slalom championship and 5th divisional FWSA Class A competition on Sunday last were Jimmy Baker and Ned Stuart. Jim placed third in both events, timing in the single run of 133 entrants in the meet applying for both events. In conjunction was also held A, B, C and open for the large entry list. Ned placed 10th in men's Class C.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bechdolt of Tahoe City enjoyed a two day vacation, attending the White Hills meet and the banquet which followed on Saturday night at Minden Inn, where Bill was one of the visiting speakers. This was the first vacation the hard-working president of the Lake Tahoe Ski Club has enjoyed in some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sturgis opened their store in Tahoe Park on Monday. They had a narrow escape this winter when their store and adjoining warehouses were threatened by heavy snow. Luckily, their son-in-law, Charles Henrikson, hurried his power scoop shovel down in time to relieve the weight on the back of the store, where the snow was heaviest, removing the immediate threat of collapse. A crew of 14 men shoveled from 8:30 a.m. till noon to save the buildings which were twisting under the crushing weight, thereby averting tragedy.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Doig of Tahoe City have returned to Reno to make their home. Doig three weeks ago was transferred by the Pacific Tel and Tel, by whom he is employed, to the biggest little city and his wife, who has served as secretary for the Lake Tahoe Chamber of Commerce, awaited only his finding suitable living quarters before following him.

Mrs. William Lambert of Auburn and Fred Manley, Tahoe Park realtor, were visitors at the lake Monday. They returned to their homes when they found access to their Tahoe residences was not possible due to deep remaining snow.

Back from a sojourn in southern California is Mrs. Ruth Droste, who plans to reopen Tahoe Realty office in Tahoe City at the wye as soon as the deep snow can be removed from the front of her building. Her partner, Elsie Young is enjoying a vacation and plans to return for the busy summer season ahead.

Have been astonished during the past few weeks to hear of just how much it cost to shovel off some of these Tahoe summer homes during the past severe winter. Prices for snow removal ranged in some instances from $200 to $1,000 for the season. Even that price is better than having to rebuild.

Mrs. Mildred Brown of Lake Forest has been visiting her husband, Jess Brown, at Las Vegas. She hopped a plane in Reno and has been having a grand time visiting with ex-Tahoeites Mr. and Mrs. Bill Reardon and Mr. and Mrs. Verne Daniels. She expected to return home the first of this week.

Hear also that a former Tahoe resident, Harry Steiner, a ship captain with the merchant marine, who was well known in the Tahoe City area where he and his wife, Marie, resided in the Haugen house in Bittencourt tract for some time, was a casualty of the Korean war last fall. He and his wife visited frequently here after going back to the bay area to live. He went back into the service as a member of a ship taking supplies to the war zone. His ship reportedly was struck by enemy shore batteries and blown to bits.

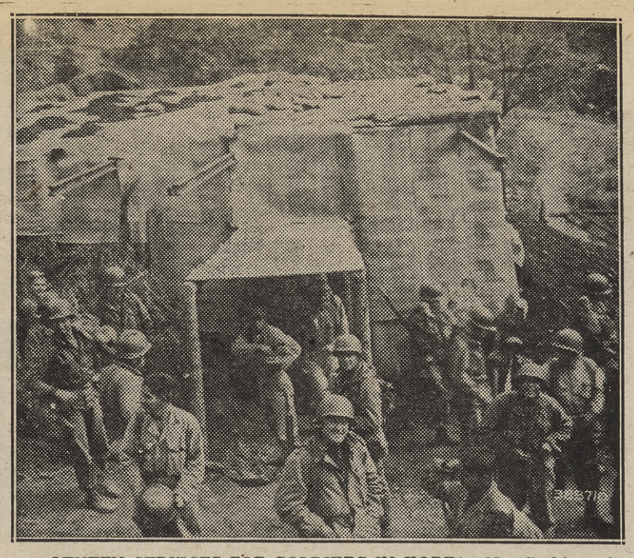
Had a call early one day last week from Sacramentan Gene Pendergast, who had read an article of mine telling of a number of summer homes here which had either fallen or been damaged by snow. His was one of those reported a total loss and he had heard nothing about it until he read it in the paper. Needless to say, after checking here he started up to Tahoe immediately with his insurance adjuster. He was one of the few lucky enough to have taken out snow insurance.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Lopes of San Leandro were visitors at the lake Saturday last. They motored up to see how their summer home in Timberland Tract looked tucked away in a blanket of white. Lopes made the trek from the highway to their place on foot but Mrs. Lopes remained in the car. He found the roof clear and al in good order, although the snow depth, despite advance information, was a shock.

Mrs. Eleanor Finney has quit her position on the Tahoe City telephone board and has rejoined her husband and children in Oakland.

Am still enjoying the beautiful spring bouquet left me by Mrs. Stella Watson last Wednesday. She and Rob visited in town during the day, returning to Shingle that evening. My bouquet of purple tulips, myrtle, iris, golden poppies and ranunculus is still lingering and has been much enjoyed.

Ring off for the week with a cheery adios to one and all, as ever, Swanee.



LENTEN SERVICES FOR SOLDIERS IN KOREA—No Gothic spire surmounts this humble chapel which Army chaplains have transformed from a sand-bagged bunker amid the forward U. N. trenches in Northern Korea. With strips of matting hanging where windows and doors would be expected, this place of worship recalls the isolated congregations of the early Christians. It serves well for the men of the 36th Regiment, 25th U. S. Infantry Division. For months they have attended the call of their chaplains in this embattled meeting place. The folks at home may picture the devout Easter service which will be held here at sunrise on the morning that commemorates the Resurrection.

TAHOE LAKE SCHOOL NEWS

Our school enjoyed a talent show last Friday put on by members of grades kindergarten through sixth. All the participants were members of our school and enjoyed preparing for the show as much as giving it. Many friends and mothers came to the show. Everyone thought it was very successful and we are planning to have another next month.

The kindergarten and first grades opened the program by singing two songs. Then Kirby Scarborough, Danny Conners and Mike Kehoe sang "Found a Peanut." They were followed by Karen Henry, Amy Lu Gilman, Kim Turner, Sheryl Thatcher, Suzanne Spargue and Sandy Fellows, who recited poems. These children are all kindergarteners except Kirby, Danny, Suzanne and Sandy, who are first graders. These grades concluded their part of the program by singing and acting out two more songs.

For their part of the program, the second and third grades sang a song and played a rhythm-band selection, both under the direction of Albert Gelmstedt, third grade. Steven Randall, Paul Good, Nippy Scott and Paul Quartly followed with a skit on bull fighting. Next was a vocal solo by JoAnn Pomin, third grade, and last an amusing skit on skiing which featured Binth Rustad, Betty Proctor, Jim Huega and Randy Scarborough.

Grades four through six provided a variety of entertainment. Among those singing solos, duets or trios were Sharon Gilman, Kristine Soltau, Mary Ann Stark, Sherry Briner, Sharon Bechdolt and Diane Speeter. Richard Griffith read a story which he had written entitled "The Rose Killer." Billy Conners, Billy Schrader, John Smith and Jerry Hanson put on a wrestling show. Sharon Bechdolt and Sharon Gilman both played piano solos. Joann Wray, Kristine Soltau, Diane Speeter and Sherry Briner read poems. There were two more interesting skits, one by Gary Henry, Randy Pomin and John Quartly about clowns and another by Kristine Soltau and Mary Ann Stark entitled "Girls will be Girls."

SHORT OF QUOTA

Mrs. E. V. O'Rourke, Red Cross chairman at Tahoe City, announced that $861.50 has been sent in to Auburn, the 1952 quota having been set at $1050. Small sums are yet being received.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Myers have returned to Homewood from winter quarters at Reno.

CANDIDATES GIRD FOR STRETCH IN BATTLE FOR VOTES

by HENRY C. MacARTHUR
(Capitol News Service)

SACRAMENTO— Politics and more politics, most of it statewide, and some on a national basis, will hold the spotlight from now until the June 3 primaries. Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan issued the certified list of names and addresses of candidates entitled to receive votes at the direct primary election, a document which revealed that despite the hazards of campaigning, there are a goodly number of people who seek to represent their constituents in the legislative halls.

On the congressional side, a round 120 individuals have filed in the state's 30 districts, including the incumbents who seek return to Washington.

Contesting U. S. Senator William Knowland are three aspirants to that high office, with Clinton D. McKinnon, former newspaper publisher and presently congressman from San Diego, a Democratic hopeful.

A total of 39 candidates seek the 20 state senate offices which will be voted on this year in all the state's odd numbered districts. Senators Harold J. Powers, Eagleville; Edward J. Regan, Weaverville; Harold T. Johnson, Roseville; Luther E. Gibson, Vallejo; Earl D. Desmond, Sacramento; Clarence C. Ward, Santa Barbara, and Ben Hulse, El Centro, are all without opposition. In addition, one assemblyman, Donald E. Grunsky, will be elected to the senate without opposition from Santa Cruz and San Benito Counties. The remaining seats are contested.

On the assembly side, 349 persons will contest for the80 seats in the lower house, according to the secretary of state's list. Only a few of the states 80 assemblymen, who are elected every two years, escaped campaigns this year.

Campaign time is also on in the governor's office. After the chief executive returned from a week's tour of the east, he immediately started to lay plans for another campaign trip, this to Oregon, where he will seek that state's delegation to the national convention. His Oregon competition will consist of Stassen, Eisenhower, MacArthur and Senator Wayne Morse. Senator Taft has not entered the Oregon primaries.

DOWN MEXICO WAY

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Mitchell and son Dale of Sunnyside returned to their Tahoe home last week from a motor trip which took them to visit her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Welch of Alhambra. The entire party traveled on into Mexico where several days vacation were spent. En route home they stopped over night at Santa Cruz, at the Hal Sharrow home in San Anselmo and at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Mitchell in Sutter City.

HANDS AROUND THE WORLD

EXPLORING the world, these two young ladies in their Dhahran, Saudi Arabia schoolroom discover that they have become neighbors in spite of the 7000 miles that separate their homes. Susan Kelly, aged 11, whose dad is in personnel work with the Arabian American Oil Company, keeps her hand on Cheyenne, Wyoming, her home town in America. Faridah Sowiyigh, 12, whose father is also in Aramco's Personnel Department, points to Saudi Arabia. Both girls are in the 6th grade at Aramco's air-conditioned desert school at Dhahran.

MICHAEL SKIBINSKI CHAIRMAN OF KNOWLAND DRIVE

Appointment of Michael Skibinski, well known resident of Grass Valley, as general chairman of the Nevada County Senator Knowland campaign committee was announced this week by Robert S. Barkell, northern California vice-chairman of the U. S. Senator Knowland campaign committee.

In accepting the appointment, Skibinski said: "I invite residents in all parts of the county to join the non-partisan committee to reelect Senator Bill Knowland at the June 3 primaries.

"He has proved himself the kind of man that all Californians can feel proud and confident to have represent them in the United States Senate.

"Every section of this state can point to some important project which was achieved through the industrious efforts of their Senator Bill Knowland.

"We plan an agressive grassroots campaign to bring Senator Knowland's outstanding record to the attention of every voter. We solicit the support and participation of every resident in this county to reward our first rate men by their overwhelming votes of approval at the June 3 primaries."

JUDGE ASKS CURB OF CHAIN PIRATES ON WINTER ROADS

Judge Charles Crowe of Alta has recommended to the Placer County board of supervisors that some action be taken to control the activities of unlicensed persons who rent and sell chains to motorists in the mountain area.

Judge Crowe said a situation had arisen which resulted in petty fights, a wave of car stripping and numerous complaints from garage and service station owners.

He said a large number of persons had been gravitating into the area during the snow season to profit by the sale, rental and putting on of chains.

The supervisors discussed levying a license against the operators, such as is paid by established garages and service stations in the county.

District Attorney Al B. Broyer was directed to check the situation and report to the board on what action could be taken.

Glass Mountain

WINTER SPORTS SEASON IS JUST BEGINNING —IN LAND DOWN UNDER

With summer already over in Australia, skiing enthusiasts there are planning their winter sports program.

Although many Americans think of Australia only as a land of sunshine and beaches, it also has its snow covered mountains.

Some of the finest snow country in Australia is on the Bogong Plateau in the Victorian section of the Austrlian Alps. The plateau has a wide area of skiing country over 6,000 feet elevation. Nearby is Mount Hotham, where world skiers have praised Varsity Drag as one of the most thrilling and interesting slopes in the world.

TAHOE SKI CLUB TO HOST F. W. S. A. SESSION THIS WEEK

Bill Bechdolt, manager of Tahoe Inn, who has guided the club's destiny so successfully through the present busy season, was unanimously re-elected president and other officers-elect include: Floyd Carnell, vice president; Max Porter, second vice president; Blanche Donaldson, recording secretary; Marian Stuart, corresponding secretary; Art Frodenberg, treasurer; Ray Fellows, junior director; Jack Starratt, tournament director; Dick Carnell, chief of the hill; Jake Stuart, Al Henry Jr., Wesley Donaldson and Bud Jones, directors.

The first order of business was the completion of plans for the annual convention of the Far West Ski Association officials to be held at Tahoe City and Squaw Valley Apri 26 and 27. A change in plans was made necessary regarding registration and holding of the convention, the new arrangement calling for the conclave to be held in the auditorium of Tahoe Lake School at Tahoe City. It was formerly scheduled for Squaw Valley. The banquet and movie will be held at Squaw.

The schedule follows:

Friday, April 25, there will be movies for early arriving guests in Squaw Valley Lodge's main lobby.

Saturday, April 26, 11 a.m., registration of delegates at Tahoe Lake elementary school, Tahoe City; 1 p.m., convention convenes at school; 6 p.m., convention recesses until Sunday; 8 p.m., banquet and dancing at Squaw Valley. Delegates are requested to obtain tickets when registering.

Sunday, April 27, 9 a.m. convention reconvenes at Tahoe Lake School. Those wishing reservations should call or write Connie Briner, Squaw Valley, Tahoe City, Calif., or Mrs. Ray Fellows, Carnelian Bay, phone Brockway 5J11.

On Friday night, April 25, the regular weekly Lake Tahoe Ski Club meeting will be held at 8 p.m. in Tahoe community center hall and all FWSA members and their guests are welcome to attend. Bill Bechdolt is looking forward to entertaining around 200 people over the FWSA's two-day sessions here.

Bechdolt thanked all those who worked with him during he past year and announced a membership drive to acquire at least 100 new members to add to the present roster of 143 would be one of the first orders of business after May 2, when new officers take over.

SIERRA SNOWS— The above picture was taken on the transcontinental telephone lead at Soda Springs as crews of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company worked late last month to uncover wires and cross arms. According to Art Leitch, Truckee manager for the company, the open lead was completely covered in spots by ice and snow and in other locations was partially buried by snows as deep as the high poles. The telephone company poles in the picture are 30 feet high.

We are in the process of closing the books for the 4th annual Donner Trail Memorial Race. From the pre-meet party to the presentation banquet, each and every contributing factor to the event was a decided success. Over a thousand dollars was taken in at at the carnival party which was held at Donner Ski Ranch and with all bills paid off, it is estimated that a goodly sized sum will repose in the DTMR coffers for the start of next year's promotional work. The drawing of numbers party held at Chantarella Lodge was accompanied by a buffet and the drawing went as smoothly as did all the events preceding the big day of the race.

The Donner Trail Memorial Race is such an acknowledged success that operators along Highway 40 for the full length of the race's 26 miles are about to set up a permanent committee with a view to making the 5th annual the biggest yet. Silver completion buttons wil be given next year to those racers who have completed in each of the races—the four to now and the one to come.

The Eugene, Oregon, Tri-Pass Club group, who gave us Hans Holaas the past three years, showed up as usual—this time accompanied by Coach Bud Nasholm—and shoved into first place one Jan Onsrud, who took first place with a time of 3 hours, 36 minutes and 36 seconds. Onsrud is a Norwegian exchange student at University of Oregon. Our own Atavio Genoni, former Swiss cross country champion who started one minute behind Onstrud, took second place with a time 31 seconds less than the winner. Little, sturdy Sharon Gardner, who has journeyed from Eugene for three years to participate, took her 11 miles in the women's division in 2 hours 26 minutes 8 seconds, then continued on for the full 26 miles, beating the time of many men entrants. Gordon Benhard of Colfax took his three miles in the Junior I Division and then carried on the full 26 miles to get his completion button. An unknown, who arrived at 1:30 p.m. the day of the race (and after all contestants were well on their way) "swept" the course and went on his way quietly without receiving any of the glory that would have rightfully been his, for his time was shorter than any other participant. (If you can find out who he is, let us know please). These are some of the highlights of the race. Two women in their fifties entered the women's division, each completing and receiving their completion buttons. Veteran Charlie Viisanen, our 60-year-old Finish friend from the Kaleva Club in Berkeley and three time veteran winner, had to leave the race at Rainbow Tavern—wrong wax. The Tri-Pass Club of Oregon received their engraved name on the perpetual trophy as having the best combined time for a club team.

We could use reams of paper merely listing those cooperative neighbors who helped to make the 4th annual DTMR the best show in northern California but a letter will have to be sent to show our appreciation. However, we do want the whole community and area to know that Dr. L. D. Nelson on Truckee gave up several hours of his valuable and well-taken time to examine each and every entrant who participated in the race, including men, women and children, for the race started at 9 a.m. Thanks, Larry!

We take our hats off to N. F. "Tom" Dolley, who wheeled his Truckee ambulance up for the day's event, following the racers from the Summit to Emigrant Gap. Tom clambered up snow banks at each racers' refreshment station to check to see if the long grind was telling on any of our charges. Tom didn't leave until the last racer was through. Very, very much obliged, Tom!

Hap and Donna Warnke of Donner Lake Lodge labored long into the night to rig up our loud speaker system on their station wagon, which was loaned to the area for the whole day for broadcasting purposes. Donna was the chauffeur and anyone who knows Donna knows that she was on the job every minute.

Red Jolly, Truckee's sign painter, needs double thanks for painting our missing racer numbers for we didn't get our missing numbers checked until a few days before the race—but Red got them out for us.

We could go on and on with "thank you's," even to the containers for our grab bag country store night at the pre-meet benefit party, said grab bag containers being furnished by Tonini's. Awards were given us by many Truckee merchants, including Fontana's Laundry, Sarge Reynolds and Johnny Richards. Cash donatiins were also gratefully received. You'll all hear from us later.

Due to race activities, we missed last week's report but we know you are anxious for a report on Elmo Moriano's Beacon Hill Easter bonnet parade. Sheldon Jones' hat held a peeping chick... Ruby Allen's concoction with its huge stuffed rabbit was the kind of Easter nightmare most men dream of when their wives announce a new Easter bonnet is in the offing. The Mallory family, Pa and the kids, all had on other concoctions made by versatile Mama Bea. John Carl scuttled his chance of winning by being judge, but his hat was a beaut. John built an entire snow covered cabin with a little house at the rear, a massive creation with no detail missing. Jeannie Moriano had a ski slope on one side of her head with a bunny on skis coming down the slope. Ronnie Goss, Jessie Thompson, Goldie Rowton, Jessie Vanderford and Elsie Olsen wore flower creations. Bob Chaplin's hat included everything from Easter eggs to bunnies. Jack Samples from Ski Ranch sported a huge floor dragging sombrero, whilst another Ski Rancher came in with chapeaux made of steel wool, dish rags, screw drivers and what not. Our hat, delicately constructed, had to be kept in the ice box for it was a spring salar and we're not kidding. Parsley formed the base for delectable fresh vegetables such as carrots, radishes, green peppers, red cabbage, celery and green onions. We feared that our hat would not last until grand prize time, but we managed to hold a portion of it together. Chuck Reynolds of Ice Lakes had a hat full of nodding flowers that made it impossible to use him as a dance partner, for the majority of said flowers were headed forward and outward. Don't know who the people are who won the prizes but needless to say, their concoctions were more than can be described. A super-duper buffet topped off the evening.

Mrs. Jessie Vanderford heads for Los Angeles after her hard work as a committee head for the DTMR. Max and Natalie Williamson take a little relaxation by giving a farewell party for Tony and Kay Rogina at Big Bend ranger station; a chow mein party no less. Max was head of the racing committee for DTMR whilst Nat broke trail for the skiers. Roy Thompson, also trail breaker from Sitzski Lodge to Yuba Gap, found himself in such fine condition that he decides that perhaps next year he'll enter the 26-mile course. John Johansen says should Roy "go," he'll enter too.

Prue Crosby, third in women's division, sports a lot of new freckles from her racing and trail marking. Eleanor Anderson, pinker cheeks. Ernie Nordstrom, a few extra muscles which enabled him to come in third in veterans' class. Don B. Smith could be seen practically all the way of the course, for he kept his interesting bald pate covered by the unique red cap, which has become associated alone with the mountaineer known as "Don B."

In closing, we still say that the DTMR is the most unifying event that we have in the area. On the night of the party, all lodges closed their cocktail lounges and coffee shops at 9 o'clock, leaving word that the only place to get sustenance and refreshment was at the Donner Ski Ranch — the party place. Our dance hall girls, including Betty Horak, Pat Woodard, yours truly, Cindy Fields, Liz Pierson, Nat Williamson, Dee-Dee Dunlap, Jean Moriano, Paul Isola and a few I've missed, deserve a lot of credit for their persistence and money-taking ways. Bud Horak and Jack Woodard as barkers were superb, whilst Cal Atkins again journeyed to the area to engrave the trophies "on the spot." Queen Irma Nauss had an exhausting weekend with her officiating at the party, number drawing and presentation banquet.

The unsung heroes of any ski meet are are officials and workers along the way, so we reserve the last verse here as a hymn of praise to them. They did a grand job. We refer to Dick Buek, the starter; Edy Aro, "mike" handler; James Sherritt, timer j.g.; John Fountain, timer for the 26 milers; Max Williamson, chief of course; Ernie ordstrom, head of trail marking; Milt Hogle, master of ceremonies; Cam Roumage, Axel Olssen, John Blodger, trail keepers; Tony Rogina, time keeper at railroad crossing; Charlie Allen, time keeper for women. Refreshment stand attendants were Margot Nordstrom, Soda Springs; Eva and Tony Donadio, Rainbow; Glenn Parsons, Trailsyde; Sherman Reams, Sitzski; Mr. and Mrs. Halbert, Yuba Gap.

Threat to Valley Slight

SACRAMENTO —(C. N. S.)— U. S. weather bureau officials have expressed the belief that the Sacramento Valley is safe from floods this year, despite the heavy Sierra snowfall. In addition, only minor inundations will occur in the San Joaquin Valley, it was stated.

The officials base their belief on the fact that 314 inches of snow were recorded at Norden Summit (U.S. 40) on March 20. Between that date and April 18, the level dropped to 116 inches. The scene above is the northeast slope of Norden (Donner) Summit.

As yet no perceptible rise has been noted in the Feather, American and Sacramento Rivers, and indications are that unless exceptionally unusual weather occurs, the runoff will continue to be steady.

The bureau cited the fact there has been no exceptionally high water all during the season. Plenty of runoff has gone into the soil, with the effect of raising water table levels in the two valleys.

Within the next 24 hours, some increase in river levels are expected but the streams are far below even a flood warning stage.

Besides her brother here, and her husband, Alvin, the deceased leaves two other brothers, two sisters, three sons and two daughters.

SAVE MONEY & BE SAFE

Some of our "ALL-ELECTRIC" customers may save themselves money on the operation of their Electric Water Heaters by checking the cold water connection to their water tank to determine if a check-valve has been installed in that line close to a point where it enters the tank.

Such a check-valve will prevent the hot water from being pushed back into the cold water line by pressure generated by the hot water in the tank.

AREA SKIERS RATE HIGH IN EVENTS AT WHITE HILLS

WHITE HILLS— Allan Ramsey, skiing for the University of Nevada, took third in the Snowshoe Thompson cross country race Saturday and first in jumping on Sunday to win the classic combined title of the FWSA. John Gianotti, Scotia, Calif., reversed the order to win the marathon and take third in jumping.

Rusty Frodenberg, Lake Tahoe Ski Club, was a close second in jumping and a lead-pressing fifth in the cross country.

In a special Class A jump Sunday, Byron Johnson of Truckee and lately of Fairbanks, Alaska, was first, edging Max Straubhaar, former Tahoe skier now of Modesto. Bill Nelson of Reno was third.

ANGLERS PREPARE FOR FIRST OPENER OF TROUT SEASONS

An estimated half-a-million California anglers were making plans today to open the first of two trout angling seasons, which begins Saturday, May 3, in most of the state, including Lake Tahoe, Donner Lake and Boca Reservoir.

Prospects for hooking the daily bag limit of 15 trout, salmon or mountain white fish are generally poor, according to pre-season predictions advanced by state fish and game wardens. They blamed almost universal high water and snow conditions for the expected subnormal openers.

A May 30 opening will be in effect in Tuolumne, Alpine, Amador, Calaveras, El Dorado, Placer, Nevada, Sierra, Plumas, Lassen, Del Norte and Modoc counties' waters not opening May 3. Easterly portions of Shasta and Tehama counties and waters tributary to the Pacific Ocean on the coast of Humboldt County are included in the later season. Throughout the state, trout angling ends October 31.

Equipped with a 1952 angling license, sportsmen may go after trout one hour before sunrise to one hour after sunset during the open season. Printed copies of the new angling regulations are now available at department of fish and game offices and license agencies. In Truckee license agents are located at Bud's Fountain, Rasco and Cabona's store.

North Tahoe Teen-Agers Are Injured in Car Crash

Two North Tahoe girls were injured yesterday afternoon when a car driven by Phyllis Walker, 14, Tahoe Vista, ran off the Hobart Mills road four miles north of Truckee and was demolished. Miss Walker and her companion, Sherry Robinson, 16, Kings Beach, were treated by Dr. L. D. Nelson.

State Patrolman William Gautsche cited the driver for not having a drivers' license and cited her mother for permitting her to drive without a license.

DAYLIGHT TIME BEGINS SUNDAY

This area, along with the rest of California, will lose an hour next Sunday when daylight saving time goes into effect. Clocks throughout the state will be set ahead one hour at 2 a.m. Sunday morning.

The new time will be effective until next September when the lost hour will be made up by setting clocks and watches back to Pacific standard time.

Southern Pacific will continue to operate all of its passenger trains on standard time, as required by law. Some schedules, however, will be changed for public convenience, officials said.

While work is being rushed to complete the new bridge over the Truckee River on the Brockway cutoff, high water in the river continues to threaten the improvised Crandall Brothers span which has been used since the main bridge was destroyed last fall. THE COST IS VERY INSIGNIF!- CANT! TH' NUMBER OF CAMPERS IS LIMITED AN' TH' FISH ARE WHOPPERS!

HOW MUCH?

TH' SCENERY IS MARVELOUS, TH' WEATHER PERFECT, AND NO MOSQUITOES! A PRIZE IS OFFERED FOR ANY TROUT CAUGHT WEIGHIN' LESS THAN TWO POUNDS!

SOUNDS GREAT, JOE, BUT YOU HAVEN'T TOLD US WHAT IT'LL COST US!

YEH! AND WHAT ARE YOU GETTIN' OUT OF TH' DEAL?

I'M NOT GETTIN' A THING!— HARDLY ANYTHIN'--- WELL, FRANKLY I GO FOR FREE IF I CAN GET A PARTY TO GO TO CHARLEY'S!

I KNEW HE HAD AN ANGLE!

IT'S MOST REASONABLE! TH' CHARGE IS $100 A DAY!

THAT ISN'T TOO ROUGH! THERE ARE TEN OF US! THAT WOULD MAKE IT TEN BUCKS A DAY APIECE!

NO, NO, YOU DON'T UNDERSTAND! IT'S A HUNDRED BUCKS A DAY PER MAN AND WELL WORTH IT, I'D SAY!
